INSIST UPON ARBITRATION

Railroad Men Hold Wilson's Plan is Impracticable

APPARENT DEADLOCK

Counter Proposals From Executives of Railways Considered to be Probable

Washington, Aug. 19.— President Wilson still has a great deal to do if he is to prevent a national railroad strike.

That was the situation as the 31 railway presidents prepared to go for another conference at the White House at 11:30 o'clock.

They hadn't slept a lot, most of them having been engaged in conferences of their own up to a late hour last night.

The upshot of their conferences was not to accept the President's proposal for settlement of the controversy with the employes. They are prepared to hold out for arbitration, they said.

Washington, Aug. 19—President Wilson's plan for settlement of the threatened nation-wide railroad strike was accepted yesterday by the representatives of the employes and taken under consideration by the officials of the roads, with many indications that they would reject it tomorrow. The word came from the managers last night, however, that they had reached no definite decision.

With the situation thus apparently at a deadlock, the only hope lay in reports that the railroad officials might present a counter-proposal forming a basis of a settlement, or that one side or the other might recede from its present position.

Thirty-one presidents and ranking officials of the great railroads received from the President yesterday afternoon his plan for the adoption of an eight-hour day, regular pro rata pay for overtime and creation of a Federal commission to investigate collateral issues. They told him they would like to consider the question and would report back tomorrow with the committee of managers which has been conducting negotiations.

At the same time the general committee of 640 representatives of the employes were approving the President's plan by a large majority, and soon after the railroad officials left the White House the four heads of the railroad brotherhoods delivered to the President a letter notifying him of the vote. The employes' committee will remain here at the President's call.

While the railroad officials would make no formal statement, they revealed clearly their opposition to Mr. Wilson's plan and indicated that they would press further their offer to arbitrate all the points at issue.

In spite of these developments, it was reported the officials might suggest a counter-proposal based on the acceptance of the eight hour day and arbitration of all other points, instead of the investigation by a Federal commission proposed under the President's plan. It was stated positively, however, that the officials had reached no definite decision on their future course.

In case the President finds no hope of settlement during his conference with the railroad officials tomorrow, he probably will summon to Washington some of the powerful financiers of the country serving as directors of the railroads. Administration officials said tonight he had by no means given up hope of effecting a settlement and was determined that it should be reached, if possible, before the representatives of both sides now here leave Washington.

In their informal statements the railroad officials insisted on arbitration on the ground that if they gave in this time it would mean the abandonment of the principles of arbitration, and they feared if they granted the 8-hour day with its consequent added expenses, without resort to arbitration, it would prejudice any appeal they might make later to the Interstate Commerce Commission for higher rates.

On the surface the threatened strike appeared nearer yesterday than at any time since the negotiations at the White House began, but Administration officials continued to believe some concessions would be made and that eventually there would be an agreement.

It was indicated plainly to Mr. Wilson that the officials were inclined to stand behind the previous attitude of the managers' committee in refusing to accept the eight-hour day and that the proposal was believed to be impracticable. The President was told, however, that the plan would be given further consideration.

St. Paul, Aug. 19— If every other railroad in the country should accept the 8-hour principle, we would stand out alone against it," declared Louis W. Hill, president of the Great Northern last night.

"But we will not have to stand alone," continued Mr. Hill, "our position is the position of every other railroad in the northwest. As a matter of fact it is the position of every big road in the country. The railroads are going to stand sodidly against the 8-hour day."

Mr. Hill was asked if the adoption of the 8-hour principle would mean receiverships for the big roads.

"That is just what it would mean. It could mean nothing else. We are in no position to adopt the eight hour day. It would cripple our train service so that we could not operate."

"Isn't it proposed, Mr. Hill, to review the rate question and possibly give the roads an increase of freight rates so that they can afford to adopt the eight hour day?"

"We will get no increase freight rates," replied Mr. Hill.

"At any rate we think we know more about running our roads than the government does. The government, you know, operates the Panama Railroad. With no severe winter weather to interfere with traffic, with no mountains to climb or tunnel, the government has to have four time as high rates as we get in order to operate that railroad."

HURRICANE HITS TEXAS

High Wind Causes Devastation at Corpus Christi Bay

LOSS OF LIFE FEARED

Virginia and Other Troops Forced to Flee From Camp and Take Shelter In Brownsville

Corpus Christi, Texas, (by long distance telephone to Dallas, Texas), Aug. 19.—Blowing 70 miles an hour, the forerunner of the tropical storm in the Gulf of Mexico was felt last night as it approached the Texas coast at this point, Brownsville, and on the intermediate plains.

Forecasts by the local weather bureau were that the crest ofthe storm would reach here about midnight and that a 120-mile wind could be expected.

But few details of the storm's work south or north of here had been received early last night. In Corpus Christi, however, the gale had carried almost everything movable before it. In its wake it had left demolished summer cottages along the beach front here, thousands of dollars damage to buildings in the business section, and a heavy sea running in Corpus Christi Bay.

Waves whipper over the beach in the northern section of the city, beaching small craft and carrying up on the shore debris from a score of decks and small bathing pavilions.

Lloyd's pier, one of the largest pleasure resorts in this section of the coast, which juts out over the water 1,000 feet, had been almost completely demolished at 6 o'clock, last night. The only portion that remained was a two-story structure adjoining the shore.

Fronting the business section, built on the beach proper, is a four-foot breakwater. Heavy seas were breaking over that and threatened to wash over it if the storm's intensity grew.

Thus far there has been no loss of life, according to available reports. Ample warning of the storm, it was said, had been give all residents and an opportunity to prepare for the approaching hurricane: Damage thus far has been confined to the washing away of structures near the shore of Corpus Christi Bay and the havoc wrought by the 70 mile gale which blew almost continuously for three hours yesterday afternoon.

No further word has been received here of the fate of the crew of the steamer Pilot Boy, which was sunk in the Gulf of Mexico, yesterday in a tropical storm. It was reported, however, that three men of the crew of 12 had been washed ashore at Port Aransas, 20 miles from here.,

San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 19 — United States soldiers and National Guardsmen stationed at Fort Brown have been driven from their quarters and have taken refuge in the city hall and other public buildings at Brownsville, on account of the Gulf coast storm which was striking that section last night, according to meager reports received over the army wireless at Fort Sam Houston from Fort Brown tonight.

A terrific and destructive wind, according to this report, has wrought havoc in Brownsville and in the military camp. Those troops which took refuge in the court house were the Illinois, Iowa and Virginia regiments They took two days' rations. All wires to Brownsville are down and communication, except over the army wireless, is impossible.

Summer residents on Padre Island beach, opposite Point Isabel, 22 miles northeast of here, came to the mainland early yesterday and all fishing vessels were drawn into Isabel harbor, on receipt of news of the storm's approach.

El Paso, Texas, Aug. 19. — One soldier was killed and thousands of others encamped in and near El Paso suffered great discomfort as a result of heavy rains which fell throughout last night. During the all-night storm Private Charles Johnston, headquarters company, seventh United States Infantry of Choutau, Mont., was killed by lightning in his tent at Fort Bliss, Other soldiers nearby were stunned.

Water poured through the camps of the Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, South Carolina and Michigan Guard nearby, inundating some tents, and ran three feet deep in the company streets of the Thirty-first Michigan Infantry.

Dallis, Texas, Aug. 19.—Telegraph companies at 7 o'clock last night reported that all wires to Corpus Christi and Brownsville had failed at 6 o'clock because of the Gulf Coast storm.

Chances of picking up wires during the night, they said, were remote.

FRENCH GAIN AT MAUREPAS

Make Further Progress on Somme and Capture Fleury

TURKS AID TEUTONS

Berlin Reports Musselmen Fighting Against Russian Troops in Galician Region

London, Aug. 19—After repulsing several German counter-attacks Thursday night, the French resumed their offensive on the Somme front yesterday and made further progress in the village of Maurepas, part of which they had previously entered, and along the road from Maurepas to Clery.

Further German positions in the region of Ginchy and Guillemont were captured yesterday by the British forces operating in the Somme region. More than 200 prisoners were taken.

Heavy attacks were made by the French last night on the Verdun front. After violent fighting at Fleury, east of the Meuse, they expelled the Germans from part of the town which had been captured, says the official French statement.

Several German counter-attacks on the Somme front southeast of Maurepas were repulsed.

The French also made considerable progress in the region of Thiaumont, in the Verdun sector. Fifty Germans were captured there.

In telling of the operations in the East the Russian War Office says the Teutons on the front from the Zlota Lipa, west of Polhaytse, resumed the offensive with considerable forces, but without success. On the River Bystritza Solotvina the Russians occupied Lysietz (seven miles southwest of Stanislau) on the western bank of the river. In the direction of Ardzeluz a series of heights were taken.

Rome reports persistent attacks and intense bombardment of Italian positions on the Trentino front, on trenches on the Slopes Monte Sperone and at Scatolari, in the Rio Freddo valley, but says they all were repulsed. Italian troops raided Villanova and Nova Vas, breaking through the enemy defenses and taking some prisoners, but it is acknowledged that the situation in the Gorizia area and on the Carso is unchanged.

Turkish troops are fighting with the Germans and Austrians in Galicia according to the official announcement made today in Berlin. Despite this additional opposition, Petrograd says all enemy attempts to throw back the Russians were defeated, and that the Czar's armies have pressed forward in several sections.

Desperate fighting continues along the Isonzo, but the Italians apparently have been unable to advance. In the Balkans the Teutonic allies have taken the offensive and, Berlin claims have taken the Greek town of Florina from the Serbian troops.

In the region of Korosmezo (Carpathians) Russian troops continued their advance and approached the summits of the mountain in the vicinity of Korosmezo.

On the Caucasian front the Turkish offensive in the region west of Lake Van was repulsed. In Persia, in the region of Kala Pasova, encounters took place with considerable Turkish forces.

The deed of acceptance which turns over to the government the birthplace of Abraham Lincoln at Hodgenville, Ky., was yesterday signed by President Wilson. It provides an endowment fund of $100,000 for its maintenance.

BAPTISTS OF OLD DOMINION

Representatives of Fifty-Nine Churches Meet in Warrenton

TO RAISE ONE MILLION

Rev. Dr. Jackson, of the First Baptist Church, Alexandria, Elected Moderator.

Warrenton, Va., Aug. 19—Dr. E. B. Jackson, of Alexandria, was elected moderator of this great body of Northern Virginia Baptists, comprising fifty-nine churches and 7,000 members. The contributions of the association to the boards of the Baptist denomination amounted to nearly $8,000.

The Hon. J. Taylor Ellyson was a visitor and at the request of the association spoke on "Ministerial Education." The speaker said that the education board has seventy-one young men under its care and spent last year about $7,000 on their education. After the address, Mr. Ellyson left for New York.

Dr. J. M. Roper, of Petersburg, was also a visitor and by request preached a sermon, to the delight and inspiration of the congregation, on the subject of "Christian Consecration." Rev. W. S. O. Thomas, of Falls Church, Va., presented a strong report on temperance. The report cited many of the benefits that have come to the people of Russia since the government has prohibited the manufacture and sale of vodka, and heartily commended the Anti-Saloon League to the churches, urging their moral and material support. The association also approved the submission of the amendment to the national Constitution and requested their legislators in Congress to give this measure their active support.

Rev. David Hepburn, of Richmond, spoke of the record of the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia in securing the passage of prohibition laws, such as the Mann law in 1904, the Byrd law in 1908, the Enabling act in 1914 and the great victory September 22, 1914, and the passage of the best prohibition law by the last legislature ever enacted by any state.

The associational sermon was preached by Rev. H. L. Swain from Matthew 4:17. Subject, "Jesus the Founder of a Kingdom." "We find," said the speaker, "two expressions referring to, first, a kingdom of God's universal dominion over all things whereby He preserves protects, gives laws to and regulates all His creatures. Second, kingdom of heaven.

"The organized churches are called kingdoms. In this, kingdom Christ and the Father rule, maintain order, safety and happiness. It is the kingdom of heaven in that it has heavenly origin, a heavenly governor, and laws, and exists to render multitudes fit for heaven as a state and place. The burden of the teachings and preaching of Jesus was to establish an holy estate in which a perfect relationship between God and man should be realized."

A resolution was passed by the association appointing a committee of three to memorialize the General Association of Virginia; to urge the Southern Baptist Convention to begin a campaign to raise one million dollars, the interest of same to aid aged ministers of the Baptist denomination Very little has been done in the past to provide for the old preachers, who have given the best of their lives in the service of the churches, often on a salary of a few hundred dollars per year, so that no provisions could be made for old age. The million dollars ought to be raised at once, and more from time to time added to it in justice not only to the preachers, but to the denomination.

Edward Canfield, general superintendent of the New York, Ontario and Western Railroad, died yesterday at Middletown, N. Y. He was 69 years old.

EXCEEDED SPEED LAW

Fairfaxan Assessed Ten Dollars in the Police Court This Morning

There were but two cases on the docket of the Police Court this morning. A resident of Fairfax county had been arrested by Officer Snellings charged with exceeding the speed law while operating his automobile within the city limits. According to the officer, the accused shot eastward on King street at an early hour this morning at a speed of between thirty and thirty-five miles an hour attracting general attention and causing people on the street at the time to approach the officer and enter complaint. The officer was unable to intercept the man at the time, but awaited his return, when he placed him under arrest. The Fairfaxan left $10 collateral for his appearance at nine o'clock, at which time he appeared in the Police Court. After Officer Snellings had made his statement, the Fairfaxan asked the privilege of conducting his own case. He was told by the court that, as an American citizen, he could act as his own lawyer. He then requested permission to cross-question the officer, asking him how he knew he passed over a square in less than eighteen seconds, and whether or not he produced a watch and timed him. The officer reiterated his statement to the effect that the speed of the machine attracted general attention. The court then asked the accused if he could say he was not making over twelve miles an hour. The Fairfaxan acknowledged he could not. The usual fine of $10 was then assessed. As was stated in the Gazette this week, the excessive rate of speed made by some automobilists in this city is a chronic complaint, and the police are endeavoring to bring the practice to a stop. The other case on the docket was that of a man who had violated the traffic law. He forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

SHOOTER'S HILL ROAD

Part of King Street Extended Since Annexation to City of Alexandria

Alexandria expects to see a modern highway in the place of the part of the King street road from the end of the vitrified street at the Union station to Janney's lane, 3,600 feet west, within six weeks, as it is expected that the work of grading and macadmizing this roadway will be completed about October 1. The concreting is well under way.

Work is being done on the road under the direction of city Engineer E. C. Dunn, and the road is closed directly at the head of the vitrified paving of upper King street, at the Union station, causing automobiles and other vehicles to make a detour around the field on the right to proceed on the main avenue through Rosemont.

When completed, the highway will be 19 feet wide. The surface will be of asphalt macadam on a 5-inch base of concrete, and will be one of the needed improvements in the annexed territory.

SPIDER ELECTS WILSON

Spins His Name in Web as Was Done for McKinley in 1896.

Charleston, Va., Aug. 19. — The quadrennial spider prophecy has been made and this year it elects Woodrow Wilson. At the home of Mrs. Thomas Field a yellow spider about an inch in length has been weaving its silken skein over a bedroom window. The spider started at the circumference of the web, zig-zagged its way to the centre, leaving in its wake the frosted letters, "W. Wilson." Some of the letters were cut as clean as though made by an engraver.

Mrs. Field recalls the election of President McKinley in 1896, when "Presidential" spiders were plentiful and they all spelled out "William McKinley."

A sudden flare up of Austrian activity on the Trentino front during thelast 24 hours, indicative of an offensive movement to create a diversion from the Italian attacks on the Isonzo, is reported. All attacks and raids were repulsed, however, the Italian statement says: Gen. EXTOLS DOMESTIC LIFE

"Happy Home and How to Make It" Subject of Discourse at Gospel Tent

"A Happy Home, and How to Make it" was the theme of Evangelist Gibson at the gospel tent on north Washington street last night.

The speaker referred the congregation to the beginning of this earth's history. When God had created everything upon the earth, and had made the beautiful garden of Eden, and had made man, the Lord then said, "It is not good that man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him." Among other things the speaker said:

"Adam, the first man upon the earth had a home furnished for his wife to come into. So today should men, before getting married have a homefurnished with necessary furniture and have it paid for: and should know that he is to be a 'house band', or husband, one who is supposed to keep the home together, and provide for the family. The wife should co-operate with her husband, and be really a help meet for him, and see to it that her work is done faithfully, and as a result there will be a happy home. There would be many more happy homes if people would follow the instruction of the Bible, 'Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith.'"

Evangelist Gibson has secured the the religious liberty secretary, Elder C. S. Longacre, of the North American Division Conference of the Seventh Day Adventists, to give a lecture on a Religious Liberty" which will bring in the United States in prophecy at the Gospel tent on north Washington street Sunday night at eight o'clock.

BATTLE WITH THE ELEMENTS.

Dispatches from the Texas border, where a number of Alexandrians, members of the Light Infantry of this city are stationed, show that while our boys have not been engaged in a conflict with Villa they have had a thrilling experience with Aeolus. The wind has been blowing at a velocity of one hundred and twenty miles an hour. There have been no fatalities, so far as known, nor has any one been injured. Warnings of the approach of the Gulf storm had been sent out hours before it broke, and every precaution had been taken. Houses were demolished, however, and tents sent sailing through the air. The Virginia soldiers were safely housed in the city hall at Brownsville and escaped the fury of the elements.

Bids Wanted For Coal and Wood.

The undersigned will receive sealed bids for 200 tons Cumberland coal, 40 tons white ash coal and 10 cords wood, to be used in heating the Alexandria city school buildings. SNAKES CAUSE ALARM.

Considerable anxiety is being caused in certain portions of New York and other states over the rapid increase of the number of attacks by snakes upon members of the human race. A number of persons have been bitten, and snake hunting has become necessary in order to eliminate danger from certain localities. The Philadelphia Record in speaking of the snake scare says:

The protracted and relentless warfare of some excellent but one-ideaed persons against the well-established antidote for snake bites is having its inevitable result. Snake bites are increasing.

The great difficulty in meddling with nature is that when it is suppressed in one spot it breaks out in another. The mongoose was introduced into Jamaica to cure the rat evil, and it succeeded admirably, but the fact that the mongoose exterminated poultry as well as rodents has caused him to be blacklisted by the United States Government.

The admirers of birds wage war on cats, and the result of their well-meant interference with the economy of nature is an increase of rats and mice. The determination to avert the seeing of snakes which are imaginary is manifested in the curtailment of the distribution of the time-honored remedy for snake bite, and the result is an increase in the death rate from the bites of snakes that are real.

It is discouraging that we can't suppress one evil without having another one bob up and annoy us. It is evident that the Prohibitionists have got to enlarge their scope of operations, and instead of confining themselves to the suppression of the remedy for the bites, extend their operations to the suppression of the snakes. What is this country going to do if the remedy is entirely abolished and the snakes remain to breed and bite? The curator of the Bronx Zoological Park says that "rattlesnake bites are seldom fatal, if properly treated; copperhead bites, almost never." But Mr. Ditmars does not tell us what the proper treatment is; presumably this is because the proper treatment is so well known, and has been so extensively used that where the sale of the remedy is not interfered with it has been a common thing for persons to take several doses a day, either because they fear they may have been bitten when they did not know it, or because they believed that if they kept themselves sufficiently charged with the remedy they would be immune from snake poison.

THE GREAT WINDUP.

The fearful war now in progress in Europe and parts of Asia is causing many persons, not alarmists, to ask themselves the question, Is the end of the world drawing near? There is nothing in history to show that such carnage has ever taken place before, and as "wars and rumors of wars," we are told, are to precede the coming of the end, attention is being given by many to the prophetic portions of the Bible. Most of those, however, who are interesting themselves in this momentous subject are guerrilla preachers, so-called. One of the itinerant cla... delivered addresses at King and Royal streets during the past two weeks.

We believe there is more misconception regarding this subject than any other which has caused religious issues in this world. The Millerites of this country in the forties were firmly convinced that they knew the day and hour of the second advent of Christ, and at a certain time sold all their worldly possessions, attired themselves in white robes, made their way to the top of a high hill and awaited the sound of the archangel's clarion. A remarkable meteoric shower shortly before that time further convinced these deluded people that they had struck the long foretold time. Some of the descendants of the Millerites but bearing other names are still among us, a few in Alexandria. At the extreme western end of Franklin street they erected over eighty years ago a small house of worship. This building, we believe, is still standing.

After all, what is meant by the end of the world? It is, of course, generally known that the New Testament was written in what is known as Alexandria Greek. Our version is a translation, made by order of James the First of England. There are four different words in the Greek New Testament which are translated world in the English version. These words are kosmos, oikumene, ge and aion. The first means order of things, people of the world, etc., and stands in opposition to chaos, confusion. It is generally used to denote the existing order of things, sometimes the Jewish dispensation. The second (oikumene) implies the habitable world, or the Roman Empire. Ge is the terra firma, the planet upon which we live, the earth. Aion means an age, era or dispensation. This is the word generally used by Christ in speaking of the end of the world especially in the 13th chapter of Matthew, where Christ speaks in seven parables, closing with the words, "And so shall it be in the end of the world" (aion—age). In the 24th chapter of Matthew when the disciples asked Him concerning the great windup of terrestrial affairs their words, literally translated, were "the consummation or end of the age." This is significant, and shows what they had in their minds at the time. The declaration "and so shall it be in the end of the world" should, it is believed, be "end of the age."

There had been an antediluvian age, a patriarchal age, a Mosaic age, and the aspirations of the early christians were centered upon the coming age, referred to in about one hundred and fifty places in the scriptures, when, as Daniel told Nebuchadnezzar, the God of Heaven will set up a kingdom which shall never be moved.

These four words are used with great precision by the New Testament writers. When the order went forth that all the world should be taxed in the first part of Luke the word oikumene is used, very suitably, as it was the Roman Empire which was to be taxed. Christ told Pilate "My Kingdom is not of this world" (kosmos) of present order of things. No one has ever understood why these four words should have been translated by one word—world—as this has obscured the sense.

It would take too much space to quote a number of other places in which confusion exists by this translation. Any one can take a concordance and see for himself. In some places the word aion is translated age,. Paul uses it in speaking of "the ages to come", where it is properly rendered by our translators.

We are told to pray "Thy Kingdom come and will be done on earth as it is in heaven." This was undoubtedly the end of the world (or age) the early Christians were anticipating.

Most Bible readers, however, believe that prophecies similar to those referred to above are to be taken in a spiritual or figurative sense, and that those anticipating literal fulfillments are suffering from delusions.

We give the contentions of both sides, and the reader must be the judge.

AN AWFUL DISEASE.

(Baltimore Sun).

One day Mr. Hughes is greatly troubled about Democratic inefficiency. The next about the temporary character of national prosperity. The next about the national honor. Thursday was national honor day in Oregon. The country is suffering from a deadly trouble, he told the good people of Oregon; a festering sore on its honor which only Dr. Hughes, assisted by such masters of honor as Dr. Penrose, Murray Crane and the old Republican guard of honor, can heal. This humor or disease is a frightful malady. The worst thing about it is that a nation may be at the point of death with it and utterly unaware that anything is the matter. Like a man who has heart disease and dosen't know it, it may be fat and apparently hearty, and yet in danger of falling dead at any moment.

It's an awful sickness, this insidious dishonor trouble, and it makes us shudder to think what may happen to us if Mr. Hughes can't arouse the country to its peril. So far it dosen't seem to care a darn about its honor, or, at all events, doesn't believe there's a thing the matter with it. What will happen to an obstinate country like this if it refuses to have its honor mended with Hughes' salve —the only salve on the market warranted to effect a cure? We feel terribly despondent about this honor disease. If what Mr. Hughes says is true, we are afraid the United States is "a goner."

Morris Fortune, white, a painter at work forty feet from the ground on one of the dormitories at Randolph-Macon Woman's College, at Lynchburg received injuries yesterday in a fall, when the scaffold rope broke, which may cause his death. Fortune sustained a broken back, which produced paralysis of the legs. Another painter at work on the other end of the scaffold caught the rope as the opposite end fell. He descended the rope, hand-over-hand, to the assistance of his fellow-worker. Fortune is 45 years old, married and lives in West Lynchburg.

That the Republicans of Virginia nominate Jacob Yost, of Staunton, formerly Congressman from the Tenth Virginia District, to wage a State-wide campaign against Claude A. Swanson, for the United States Senatorship was unanimously recommended by the Republican committee of the Sixth District, which met at State Republican headquarters at Roanoke, Thursday night. The committee last night subscribed $5,000 worth of stock to the "Old Dominion Republican," a weekly newspaper which has been removed from Salem to Roanoke. The managers of the publication are planning a State-wide canvass for subscriptions and additional stock in other districts will be solicited.

Arrangements have been completed with the national government by Commissioner John S. Parsons of the state department of game and inland fisheries, whereby the mountains of Virginia are to be stocked with elk, fifty of the animals to be supplied to the state by Washington. According to the program 25 elk will be liberated next winter in the Blue Ridge mountains of Virginia, provided thegame department will rule a five-year closed season on the animals from the time they are placed in the Virginia forests. Requests for the elk were made by Roanoke and Montgomery county game association. The elk are to be caught n Colorado, and thence transported to Virginia, the state to bear this expense.

Of this number he figures 400,000 were casualties. By the end of this month Col. Gablonsky estimates the Austrian losses against the Russians and Italians will aggregate a million men.

MINERS' HOMES BLOWN UP.

I. W. W. Blamed For Two Explosions in Minnesota.

Biwabik, Aug. 19.—An explosion which early yesterday wrecked a boarding house, with 10 persons in it, at the Biwabik mine location, near here, is laid by the authorities at the door of the Industrial Workers of the World. No one was injured.

Tony Dumont, who, with his wife, two children and six boarders, occupied the house, had been told by pickets to stop work if he did not want to "wake up in h—," but he refused to stop, About midnight an explosion wrecked the rear portion of the house.

Matti Moilenes, an Industrial Worker of the World, was arrested, the authorities having been informed that he had threatened to blow up the house. Industrial Workers of the World cards were found in his possession, the police say.

Another explosion, while the authorities charge to the Industrial Workers of the World, occurred near Hibbing. The entire front of the house of John Smith, hoisting engineer at the Philbin mine, was torn away. Smith, his wife and five children were in the rear of the hoose and escaped injury.

Smith refused to strike recently when the Industrial Workers of the World agitators demanded it, and has received several threatening letters. No arrests have been made.

ONLY ONE GAME HERE IN SERIES.

Eagles Play Cardinals at Union Station Ground in Lone Local Game Tomorrow.

The only game to be played in this city tomorrow in the amateur baseball championship of northern Virginia series will be staged between the Cardinals and the Eagles at the Union station grounds. Alexandria County Athletic Association nine takes on the White Sox at Clarendon.

The Eagles-Cardinals game will begin promptly at three o'clock and it is expected that a large delegation of rooters for each team will be present when play is called.

All indications still point to the fact that the race for the title will be very close.
